

54 - Parent/Carer Privacy Notice

Policy Statement

We are (insert school name), a member of MITRE (Minster Trust for Education). During your child's time with us, we will gather and use information relating to you. Information that we hold in relation to individuals is known as their "personal data". This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you that we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after your child has left any school in our Trust. Anything that we do with an individual's personal data is known as "processing".

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we process in relation to you?

We will collect, hold, share and otherwise use the following information about you:

- personal information (such as name, address, home and mobile numbers, personal email address, emergency contact details and relationship/marital status)
- financial details such as bank details, eligibility for free school meals or other financial assistance
- CCTV footage and images obtained (if you visit a school that uses CCTV)
- your relationship to your child, including any Court orders that may be in place

We may also use special categories of data such as gender, age, ethnic group, sex or sexual orientation, religious or similar beliefs and information about health. These types of personal data are subject to additional requirements.

Where do we get your personal data from?

A lot of the personal data held will be obtained directly from you, by way of information gathering exercises at appropriate times such as when your child joins a school in The Trust, and when you attend the school site and are captured by our CCTV system (where present).

We may also obtain information about you from other sources. This may include information from the local authorities or other professionals or bodies, including a Court, which might raise concerns in relation to your child.

Why do we use your personal data?

We will process your personal data for the following reasons:

1. Where we are required by law, including:
 - To provide reports and other information required by law in relation to the performance of your child
 - To raise or address any concerns about safeguarding

- To Government agencies including the police
 - To obtain relevant funding for the school
 - To provide or obtain additional services including advice and/or support for your family
2. Where the law otherwise allows us to process the personal data as part of our functions as a Trust or individual school, or we are carrying out a task in the public interest, including:
- To confirm your identity
 - To communicate matters relating to the Trust or School to you
 - To safeguard you, our pupils and other individuals
 - To enable payments to be made by you to the School or payments from the school to you
 - To ensure the safety of individuals on the school sites
 - To aid in the prevention and detection of crime on the school sites
3. Where we otherwise have your consent

Whilst the majority of processing of personal data we hold about you will not require your consent, we will inform you if your consent is required and seek that consent before any processing takes place.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may process special category personal data in relation to you for the following reasons:

1. Where the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, including for purposes of equality of opportunity and treatment, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.
2. Where the processing is necessary in order to ensure your health and safety on the School sites, including making reasonable adjustments for any disabilities you may have.
3. Where we otherwise have your explicit written consent.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests or those of your child, and where it is not possible to seek your consent.

Failure to provide this information

If you fail to provide information to us we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

How long will we hold your personal data for?

We will hold your personal data only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. For further detail please see our Retention and Destruction Policy.

Who will we share your personal data with?

We routinely share information about you with:

- Local authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education and/or the Education and Skills Funding Agency, in compliance with legal obligations of the school to provide information about students and parents/carers as part of statutory data collections
- Contractors, such as payment processing providers to enable payments to be made by you to the School

The Department for Education may share information that we are required to provide to them with other organisations. For further information about the Department for Education's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>.

Contact details for the Department for Education can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>.

Local authorities may share information that we are required to provide to them with other organisations. For further information about Nottinghamshire County Council's data sharing process, please visit: <http://www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/education/child-data-security/child-data-security>.
